Geirin joins Pearce Real Estate as sales associate

July 22, 2022 - Connecticut

Dan Geirin

New Haven, CT Nanette Pastore, president of Pearce Real Estate, said that Dan Geirin has joined the company as a residential sales associate.

“We are delighted to have Dan Geirin join our team,” said Pastore. “His accounting background, prior professional accomplishments and kind nature will serve him well in his career.” He is personable and cares about the satisfaction of the client. Dan cited the intelligent, friendly and high-quality service Pearce is recognized for along with very supportive leadership as reasons he chose our firm.

Geirin studied accounting from Curry College, a private college in Massachusetts. He has developed strong organization and communication skills as well as the ability to work well with various individuals in his previous positions. Geirin loves to play golf, ski and is an accomplished photographer.
