Jared McNabb

Boston, MA According to Barkan Management Company, Inc., Jared McNabb, CMCA, PCAM, has joined the company as a general manager for EchelonSeaport, a 3.5-acre, 1.33 million s/f, mixed-use waterfront development comprised of two luxury condominium towers—133 Seaport, A Regent Collection and 135 Seaport, A Regent Collection.

McNabb, a 20-year veteran, brings leadership and dedication to his new role at EchelonSeaport. Most recently, McNabb served as general manager of The Brook House, a 767-unit mixed-use luxury high-rise condominium, the largest and one of the oldest condominium communities in Massachusetts.

“EchelonSeaport is an outstanding, award-winning property, and I am honored to join this talented team. I look forward to providing residents with the highest standards in professional service and in all aspects of community living,” said McNabb.

“We are pleased to welcome Jared as the new General Manager of Echelon Seaport and are confident that his wide range of skills and extensive industry experience will make him a tremendous asset to the EchelonSeaport community,” said Peter Westhaver, vice president of Barkan Management Company.
