Keogh and Kovago of NAI Glickman Kovago & Jacobs broker $3.8 million sale - purchased by Ar-Raheem Academy

August 26, 2022 - Front Section

Marlborough, MA The property at 197-207 Pleasant St. has been purchased by Ar-Raheem Academy, the only Islamic school in New England. Formerly known as the Frye Family Estate, the property is comprised of three structures totaling 37,666 s/f and includes the 5,828 s/f mansion once home to the Frye Family, a 1,838 s/f carriage house, and a 30,000 s/f structure, most recently used as a rest home for the Sisters of St. Chretienne.

James Keogh and Peter Kovago of NAI Glickman Kovago & Jacobs represented the buyer who purchased the property for $3.8 million.

“We are elated for our clients,” said Keogh. “Ar-Raheem had been looking for the right location to foster their school’s growth for a while. When this opportunity presented itself, it became all hands on deck. This building will serve as a long-term home for the academy with plans to become a cornerstone of the community.”
