“The Carlyle at Godley Station and The Preserve at Godley Station are both premier properties perfectly situated just outside of downtown,” said Steven Rosenthal, chairman of West Shore. “Savannah is a fantastic market where we have seen great performance and adding two properties in Pooler to our portfolio demonstrates how important it is to us.”

“Adding these properties to our growing portfolio complements our other assets in Savannah and aligns perfectly with our strategy,” said West Shore president, Lee Rosenthal. “The population increase has been a key factor in the growth being witnessed in the area and our disciplined investment model has enabled us to continue to expand our Georgia portfolio to over 1,500 units.”

The Preserve at Godley Station is located at 65 Tanger Outlets Blvd.
