McNally joins Colliers M&G as associate in Boston Brokerage Group

October 15, 2008 - Front Section

Dana McNally has joined Colliers Meredith & Grew as an associate in the Brokerage Group, focusing on the Boston office market where he is responsible for the generation of new business, leasing, financial analysis, lease negotiations, client presentations and market research.

"We are very pleased to have Dana join our team," said Ronald Perry, executive vice president and head of the Brokerage Group. "He has been our summer intern for the past three years and has a proven work ethic and determination."

McNally earned a B.A. degree in History from Colby College in Waterville, Maine and is a licensed Mass. Real Estate salesperson.
