The new development includes 75,000 s/f of new retail space along with 122 luxury apartments.

Previously announced confirmed tenants include Glosslab, Gregory's, Molto, Naya, Oath Pizza, Seamore's, Solidcore, sweetgreen, Tartinery, and Van Leeuwen.

“Our first residents are now able to see our vision for this location – and are enjoying some of the conveniences and luxuries we have built in,” said Patrick McMahon, senior vice president, regional development for Federal Realty. “As additional retailers come on-line, the benefits of living here will continue to expand creating a dynamic neighborhood.”

New residents can enjoy many features throughout the property such as a guest suite, communal dining area with entertainment kitchen and beer tap, lending library with everything from household items to an Xbox and electric scooters, landscaped courtyard with grills, 24-hour fitness center and work-from-home spaces.

Abundant on-site surface parking makes the retail easily accessible and shopping more convenient. Darien Commons also features a brand-new 12,000 s/f Walgreens and a recently renovated Equinox club.

During the current construction plan, the following tenants and neighboring businesses are open and operating: Walgreens, Equinox, Citibank, Chase Bank, Edward Jones, Vavala's Deli, Sanda's Cleaners, Dolce Nails, Leary's Liquor Cabinet and TLC Hair Designs.

Darien Commons provides immediate access to I-95 and is just steps from the Metro-North rail line to New York City. The project creates an appealing opportunity for like-minded retailers to locate alongside each other, and enhanced convenience for future apartment residents.
