Salem, NH Mass General Brigham opened a new Integrated Care Center at Tuscan Village. Approximately 200 attendees joined Mass General Brigham for the opening of the location, which will provide both primary care and specialty treatment for patients.

The new patient-centered facility brings a holistic approach to care under one roof with a new operations approach to minimize waiting and encourage real-time patient and staff interactions and support. The three-floor center has total of 62,000 s/f with an ambulatory surgery center with four operating rooms, 31 exam rooms and comprehensive imaging services. The new center will bring almost 250 new jobs to the area.

“Having a world-class health care provider such as Mass General Brigham here at Tuscan Village is a huge part of our vision to create a nationally recognized super regional mixed-use destination for residents in our region to enjoy. We are proud to welcome them to Salem,” said Joe Faro, CEO Tuscan Brands.

“Mass General Brigham is now able to provide the world-class care that we are known for to more people in New Hampshire, closer to home,” said Anne Klibanski, MD, president and chief executive officer, Mass General Brigham. “Local health centers like this one encourage preventative care, deliver outpatient services, and meet the growing need for behavioral health services that we are seeing today, all in one place. We are committed to offering the right care, in the right place, at the right time, and at the right cost to our patients and this new center is a significant step in the right direction.”

“I am proud to welcome Mass General Brigham, a strong mission driven organization, to Salem,” said governor Chris Sununu. “Joe Faro’s Tuscan Village continues to bring incredible new opportunities to the Gateway of New Hampshire in Salem, and Mass General Brigham Integrated Care’s focus on forming strong relationships with their patients is just the right approach.”

“This new center allows patients to receive their care all in one place, with four operating rooms designed for high quality outpatient surgical care, state-of-art radiology services and 30 exam rooms,” said John Fernandez, president, Mass General Brigham Integrated Care. “This model of care represents the future of patient care and how we will keep people well, throughout their lives. Mass General Brigham is proud to be in Salem, New Hampshire and supporting the patients and employees in our community.”

Mass General Brigham Integrated Care represents the next step in patient care, where patients can see their primary care providers and visit top specialists at one location that’s close to home or work. With the opening of this new location, patients will also have access to the full spectrum of care across Mass General Brigham including world-renowned hospitals and the latest innovative research.

The Integrated Care center will offer a wide range of services to patients as well as full services imaging and blood draw. Services offered include:
