Carvalho joins DJSA as assistant project manager

December 16, 2022 - Front Section

Raynham, MA DJSA Architecture PC has hired Shawn Carvalho as an assistant project manager.

In this role, his responsibilities include schematic programming, design development, and production of permit/construction bid documents. In addition, he coordinates architectural and engineer/consultant work including all production, project budgeting/expectations, and construction administration. He also acts as a mentor to junior staff members.

Carvalho brings 10 years of architectural design and project management experience to his post, most recently as job captain with Anderson Porter Design.

Carvalho earned a bachelor's degree in architectural engineering technology from the New England Institute of Technology and is presently pursuing project manager certification.

"It's great to have Shawn on board as a member of our team," said Dennis Swart, president of DJSA Architecture PC. "His experience as both a project manager and architectural designer, coupled with outstanding client service and communication skills, are of great value."
