OFI promotes Wake to VP of sales operations

December 23, 2022 - Connecticut

Megan Wake

Newington, CT OFI has promoted Megan Wake (formerly Phillips) to vice president of sales operations. Wake, a 19-year OFI employee, has been promoted to this newly created position to act as a liaison between all departments. Processes will be revised for further efficiency utilizing her critical insight into each aspect and all levels of the organization.

Rick Mills, president & CEO of OFI said, “Megan’s wealth of experience and her commitment to exceptional service with her customers throughout the years makes her the perfect fit in this new position. Her intuitive approach to projects seamlessly aligns to OFI’s core values of inspiring creativity, promoting productivity and increasing overall wellbeing.”

Wake, who has been in the interior environment industry for over 25 years, commented, “I’m very excited to bring my role within OFI to the next level. I’m looking forward to further developing and streamlining processes to continue to surpass client expectations.”
