2022 Year in Review: William Low, L&P Commercial

December 30, 2022 - Spotlights

William Low
President

L&P Commercial

What person, project, transaction or market trend had the greatest impact on your industry this year? Interest rates and inflation fears helped tank a very good market.

What was your most important professional accomplishment or most notable project, deal, or transaction in 2022? Successfully representing Iberia Foods/Brooklyn Bottling in the leasing of the 70,000 s/f excess space.

How has your career path changed in 2022? Lean & mean, have to choose projects carefully.

What emerging trends will drive investment and development in 2023?

Continued consolidation in the office market as “hybrid space” continues will cause developers to rethink design.
