Columbia promotes Chardavoyne to vice president, business development

February 03, 2023 - Owners Developers & Managers

Matt Chardavoyne

North Reading, MA Columbia has promoted Matt Chardavoyne to vice president | business development.

Since joining the Columbia team eleven years ago, Chardavoyne has forged and fostered meaningful relationships with colleagues and clients across the region. Leveraging this depth of experience, he has partnered with Columbia leadership to develop a company-wide business development strategy focused on well-researched and impactful business opportunities.

“Matt is a collaborative, humble, relationship-driven leader who guides our overall business development efforts and provides focus, strategic perspective, and cross-sector awareness,” said Dave Stodden, executive vice president at Columbia.

“Business development can be both challenging and rewarding, but my work has been a true pleasure thanks to the support of my colleagues and the widespread recognition of the work that we all do here at Columbia,” said Chardavoyne. “I am grateful and inspired by this promotion and look forward to continued success.”
