Coote of Wm. M. Hotchkiss Co. named to Power 25 Real Estate

February 17, 2023 - Connecticut

New Haven, CT Richard Coote, president of the Wm. M. Hotchkiss Co., has been recognized as a member of NewHavenBIZ.com's Power 25 Real Estate - 2022. This list puts the spotlight on real estate agents and developers transforming and making an impact in the Greater New Haven region.

Coote represented the seller of the former Quinnipiack Club on 221 Church St. which sold for $4.1 million to pharmaceutical company Biohaven.

Coote, who has over 35 years of experience in the real estate industry, said "One of the most rewarding aspects of commercial brokerage is being able to merge together the correct investor with the ideal asset".

Originally founded in New Haven in 1908, The Wm M. Hotchkiss Company has a history of representing buyers and sellers in real estate deals. Currently, this local company can be found providing commercial leasing services for over 1.5 million s/f of office and retail space as well as leasing and selling residential properties, and offering maintenance and management of commercial and residential assets."
