Summerville, SC West Shore, a multifamily real estate investment firm, announces its acquisition of Solis Nexton, a new luxury apartment community located in the award-winning Nexton master-planned community. This marks the Boston-based company's eighth acquisition in the state. The company's other properties in South Carolina include Vantage at Wildewood, Town Center at Lake Carolina, and Arcadia's Edge, all in Columbia, Sweetwater Apartments and 17 South Apartments, both in Charleston, Riverwalk Apartments in Rock Hill, and Reserve at Mill Landing in Lexington. West Shore now owns and operates 45 properties with over 14,000 units in seven states.

"We are pleased to have acquired Solis Nexton, our third property in the Charleston market," said Steven Rosenthal, chairman of West Shore. "This property is in a sought-after location surrounded by world-class businesses, retail, and dining options, providing a terrific living experience for our residents."

Located in Nexton Sq., the 320 spacious apartment homes sit on 11 sprawling acres and offer a resort-style pool, dog park, pet spa, entertainment lounge, fitness center, private yoga and spin studio, and electric charging stations.

"Solis Nexton offers residents modern apartment homes in an ideal location with access to all-inclusive amenities," said West Shore president, Lee Rosenthal. "The community is near several other West Shore properties, allowing us to leverage our knowledge of the area."
