Conn. Chapter of ASLA names 2023 Landscape Architecture awards

March 24, 2023 - Connecticut

Towers|Golde, LLC of New Haven honored for Alexander Walk at Yale University - New Haven, CT

New Haven, CT The Connecticut Chapter of the American Society of Landscape Architects (ASLA Connecticut) has named the winners of its annual awards competition, recognizing excellence in landscape architectural design, planning and analysis, communication, and research. To be eligible, applicants must be a landscape architect or designer in the state of Connecticut, and the entrant or project location must be based in Connecticut.

“Masterful, clever, and beautiful landscape architecture is so important for the health of our local communities — both social and ecological — so it’s an honor to shepherd this process of peer review of all the great work in Connecticut,” said Ellen Fallon-Senechal, president of ASLA Connecticut and a landscape designer with S/L/A/M Collaborative. “All the award winners have proven themselves stewards of the environment and we look forward to watching their projects get better with age as well as seeing what they do next!”
