2023 Women in Construction: Arianna Gerrior, Timberline Construction Corporation

March 31, 2023 - Spotlights

Arianna Gerrior
Project Manager

What made you interested in seeking a career in the AEC industry? I have always been fascinated by buildings and how people and spaces come together to create one. Many people who see or enter a space don't give much thought about what went into creating that space, but I enjoy looking at the details and visualizing the process. Seeing a project go from an idea to drawings and then to a finished space is both exciting and rewarding.
