Descoteaux joins Colliers M&G Prop. & Asset Mgmt. Services Group as portfolio mgr. and assistant VP

October 23, 2008 - Front Section

Kristina Descoteaux has joined Colliers Meredith & Grew's Property & Asset Management Services Group as a portfolio manager and assistant vice president. Descoteaux will manage the MIT's real estate investment portfolio, which includes two million s/f of office, industrial and retail space in Cambridge, Mass.

Prior to joining Colliers Meredith & Grew, she spent eight years at Jones Lang LaSalle (formerly Spaulding & Slye), most recently as a general manager. "Descoteaux was responsible for managing over one million s/f of class A office and lab properties.

"Kristina is a great addition to our group. "We are very fortunate to have her join Colliers Meredith & Grew," said Dennis Callahan, executive vice president and head of the property and asset management services group.

Descoteaux earned a Juris Doctor from the Mass. School of Law, a M.B.A. from Regis University and a B.S. in Political Science from Boston College.
