Abel of Colliers named IREM instructor

April 07, 2023 - Northern New England

Brad Abel

Manchester, NH Brad Abel, Colliers vice president of real estate management services in New Hampshire, completed the requirements and has been accepted as an official Institute of Real Estate Management (IREM) Instructor. IREM is the organization that awards the Commercial Property Manager (CPM) Designation, which Abel received in 2010.

“This is an amazing accomplishment, and we at Colliers are very proud of Brad,” said Donald Eaton, Colliers managing director of real estate management services in N.H.

He is a tremendous contributor to our New Hampshire firm and exemplifies ‘Team Player’ in every aspect of the term. He will be a valuable asset to IREM as he serves to bestow his knowledge to aspiring CPM candidates,” said Donald Eaton managing director of real estate management services in New Hampshire.

Abel is now teaching Finance 402 and Ethics 800 for IREM and oversees the day-to-day operations of Colliers’ management portfolio, which consists of privately held, corporate, and institutionally owned real estate assets located throughout New Hampshire, Massachusetts, Vermont, Maine, and Rhode Island.
