NEREJ's 60th Anniversary: Edward Jordan, Northeast Private Client Group

June 30, 2023 - Spotlights

Edward Jordan
CEO & Founder

When did you discover the New England Real Estate Journal? 20 years ago! From my training as a real estate attorney, I entered the investment sales brokerage arena in 2003. NEREJ was then, and still is, the publication of record for our business in the region.

In what way has New England Real Estate Journal been a benefit to you and your business? Our office walls are lined with reprints of NEREJ coverage of our transactions throughout the years – this has always been an encouragement and affirmation to every new client, agent, and staff member to partner with us.

How long have you been affiliated with the commercial real estate industry? Since graduating from law school in 1988, I've been involved in investment real estate – beginning in New York and Connecticut, and later moving into submarkets across the Northeast and Southeast US.
