DTZ FHO Ptrs.' Fahey and O'Leary arrange 10,449 s/f lease for Keystone

October 29, 2008 - Front Section

According to DTZ FHO Partners, Keystone Partners, has renewed its lease at 67 South Bedford St. The renewed lease agreement includes 10,449 s/f of class A office space.

"We are thrilled to continue our relationship with Keystone Partners," said Mike O'Leary, senior associate at DTZ FHO Partners. "By renewing its lease at 67 South Bedford St., Keystone Partners achieves both the quality and value that tenants are looking for in today's market."

"We value the DTZ FHO team's experienced professionals and its excellent track record," said Ralph Roberto, president of Keystone Partners. "We are pleased to renew our lease at 67 South Bedford St., as it has proven to be a practical and successful location for our business."

Rick Fahey, partner, and O'Leary, of DTZ FHO, represented Keystone Partners. Gateway Rosewood owns the property and was represented in the transaction by Jason Levendusky of CBRE.
