Kirton of Lila Delman Compass facilitates sale of “The Boxcroft” at 7 Red Cross Ave. for $3.5 million

August 11, 2023 - Rhode Island

Newport, RI Lila Delman Compass said that associate broker Eric Kirton represented the buyer in the sale of 7 Red Cross Ave., known as “TheBoxcroft”.

Located at 7 Red Cross Ave., “The Boxcroft” achieved a remarkable closing price of $3.5 million. This historic property, originally built by McKim, Mead and White for Samuel Colman, a watercolorist and collector, stands as a grand and historical home. It was originally a beautiful single-family residence but has been transformed into a magnificent seven-unit multi-family property, offering apartments.

The three-level classic 19th-century home features an array of six fireplaces, each making a grand statement in their respective rooms. The property is situated on a private fenced lot, having over an acre of land with mature landscaping, creating a serene and inviting atmosphere.

Each apartment within “TheBoxcroft” overlooks the fenced grounds. Five apartments comprise one bedroom each, while there is a two-bedroom unit and a studio apartment. Additionally, some units feature unique amenities such as enclosed porches and private entrances.

Lila Delman Compass holds the distinction of being the #1 brokerage in the United States and Rhode Island, achieving top rankings in transactions over $1 million and over $2.4 million in the state.
