Boston, MA Dartmouth Property Management, a boutique, full-service commercial property management and advisory firm, has joined Atlantic Retail, a best-in-class leasing, capital markets and investment advisory firm, creating Atlantic Property Management.

“Bringing the two companies together allows us to offer our client-partners a complete package of real estate service lines so they may take a 360-degree view of their real estate investments,” said Bryan Anderson, partner, Atlantic Retail. “The property management team takes an ownership approach to each assignment, which is a perfect fit for Atlantic’s philosophy of going above and beyond to deliver results and our commitment to being not just our clients’ brokers but trusted members of their teams.”

Atlantic now provides a fully integrated platform of real estate services: tenant & landlord brokerage, capital markets, and property management. This move aligns with Atlantic Property Management’s strategic growth and service goals both regionally and nationally. With nine regional offices located in key markets throughout the country, the Atlantic Retail platform provides Atlantic Property Management with the opportunity to expand its services to new and existing markets across all asset types.

“Our goal has always been to provide our clients with not only best in class management services, but a support full platform to help them make informed decisions about their investments,” said Bob Macnamara, managing partner, Atlantic Property Management. “Joining Atlantic Retail allows us to be become a more robust partner, and I’m excited about our future.”
