It's that time of year when NEREJ will recap our cover stories from 2023 and invite Industry Leaders, Editorial Contributors, and Advertisers to share their notable accomplishments, projects, and transactions from 2023 and key insights on emerging trends that will impact their industry in 2024.

Participating firms can also take advantage of our seasonal advertising rates to strengthen their brand with year-end holiday and client appreciation messages, or tombstone ads to highlight significant projects and transactions from 2023.

While there is no fee to submit Q&A responses, we will only be able to accept ONE Q&A per office for this issue.

Important Dates:

Submission Deadline: December 14, 2023

Publication Date: December 29, 2023
