SPRINGTIME IN PARIS

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 3RD, 2024
5:30 - 8:30 PM
THE UMASS CLUB
ONE BEACON STREET,
BOSTON

On Friday, February 16th BOMA Boston hosted their Annual Ski Trip at Loon Mountain. 75 BOMA members and guests hit the slopes. Attendees enjoyed breakfast, a buffet lunch, and an après-ski reception with a cash bar. Thank you to ATI Restoration and Greenscape for sponsoring this wonderful event!

Join BOMA Boston for the annual benefit to support their charitable partner, Bridge Over Troubled Waters. Enjoy a festive cocktail soiree with delicious hors d'oeuvres, exclusive raffle prizes, and an exciting fundraiser for all! Bridge Over Troubled Waters is Boston's foremost agency providing life-changing services for homeless, runaway, and at-risk youth. We hope you can join BOMA to support their crucial work for our community. For questions on how to attend or donate, please email Courtney Sullivan or visit <https://bomabenefit.weebly.com/registration--raffle.html>.

BOMA's partnership with BOMI International remains strong. Through educational offerings, BOMA members and non-members learn from senior professionals in the commercial real estate industry to work towards earning their RPA or FMA designations, or PAC or PMFP certifications. For more information contact Kathryn Morgan, kmorgan@gbreb.com.

BOMI: Budgeting & Accounting will begin on Monday, March 18th and end on Wednesday, April 10th. Taught by Barry Familetto, Stetson Management, the class will take place on Mondays and Wednesdays virtually via Zoom. The budgeting and accounting course updates reflect the latest industry practices and standards. Innovative microlessons that focus on practical applications provide real-world insights and strategies you can implement immediately. You'll learn the skills to effectively analyze financial statements, create budgets, manage and address budget variations, prepare rent rolls, and how to attract and retain high-quality tenants using tenant profiles. For questions or to register, please contact Kathryn Morgan, kmorgan@gbreb.com.

BOMI: Environmental Health & Safety Issues will start on Tuesday, April 23rd and conclude on Thursday, May 16th. The class will be taught by Brendan Reilly of ATI Restoration and takes place via Zoom from 9:00am – 12:00pm. Environmental Health and Safety Issues presents best practices for developing and managing an effective environmental health and safety program. You will learn about the regulatory process and how it affects facilities. Compliance with laws and regulations is a key focus. The course will prepare you to conduct site assessments, analyze risk, and cooperate with compliance audits. For questions or to register, please contact Kathryn Morgan, kmorgan@gbreb.com.

Registration is now open for BOMA Foundations, held Fridays, April 26th – May 31st at 3 Center Plaza. A soup-to-nuts, seven-module, 30-hour, entry-level course, covering the fundamentals of commercial real estate administration, management, building systems, accounting and reporting, contract management and more. Seasoned industry professionals will teach each module and participants will have the opportunity to get feedback in this live setting. Participants will also partake in four building tours. For questions or to register, please contact Kathryn Morgan, kmorgan@gbreb.com.

The commercial real estate industry has a professional certification that provides early recognition for foundational knowledge and guides the next generation of property managers toward greater responsibility and success in their careers: The Certified Manager of Commercial Properties (CMCP). The CMCP is the only certification of its kind for early career commercial property managers – you may qualify with as little as one year's experience. Learn more at <https://www.creci.org/the-cmcp-advantage/>.
