NAI Glickman Kovago & Jacobs hires Kelley as senior property manager

March 29, 2024 - Retail

Dawn Kelley

Worcester, MA NAI Glickman Kovago & Jacobs has added Dawn Kelley to its property management team as senior property manager. In her new role, Kelley will spearhead the day-to-day management operations, overseeing retail, restaurant, and industrial properties across Massachusetts.

Kelley brings over 23 years of experience in real estate management spanning Massachusetts, Connecticut, and Rhode Island. Her expertise encompasses leadership, finance, personnel management, facilities oversight, mentoring, and client relations.

With a focus on strategic property management, Kelley has a proven track record in contract bidding, financial reporting, budget preparation, and capital planning. She holds certifications from the National Association of Realtors as an Accredited Buyer's Representative (ABR) and a Commitment to Excellence (C2EX) designee.

Kelley's dedication to excellence in real estate has been recognized through her inclusion in Boston Agent Magazine's "Who's Who in Boston Real Estate" and her membership in the International Diamond Society, representing the top 10% worldwide. She is a graduate of the Isenberg School of Management at the University of Massachusetts at Amherst, holding a Bachelor's degree in Finance with a concentration in Corporate Finance. Beyond her professional endeavors, Kelley is actively involved in philanthropy, supporting organizations such as Project Purple, the Pan Mass Challenge, and St. Jude's Hospital.

"NAI Glickman Kovago & Jacobs is a proven and well-established leader in the real estate market, and I am excited to be a part of helping the ownership team to grow the business. With extensive experience in leadership, finance, personnel and facilities management, mentoring, and tenant and client relations, I will be able to assist with the long-term success of the company," says Kelley.

"We welcome Dawn to our team with great enthusiasm. Her track record as a dynamic and driven property manager aligns seamlessly with the foundational principles of our expanding company. With her commitment to exceptional customer service and dedicated property management, we are confident in enhancing our presence and reputation in Worcester and beyond," said James Glickman, principal at Glickman Kovago & Jacobs.
