Hannah R. E. Investors and Stillwater Inv. Mgmt. celebrate opening of $66m project

November 12, 2008 - Front Section

Mayor Dannel Malloy joined project developers Seth Weinstein, principal of Hannah Real Estate Investors, and Paxton and Ray Kinol of Stillwater Investment Management at a ribbon cutting ceremony for Glenview House, 25 Glenbrook Road. â€

"This is an exciting day for the developers, and for the city of Stamford. â€Glen View House forms the gateway to a revitalized East Side", said Weinstein. "We have today opened a brand new residential building of the highest caliber that will soon be home to Stamford's first Walgreens."

GlenView House, a mixed-use residential and retail building on the corner of Glen Brook Rd. and East Main St., consists of 15,000 s/f of retail space leased to Walgreens and 146 residential rental apartments.â€The development is now leasing.

The $66 million project is being financed through a construction and acquisition loan with Bank of America. â€
