

CELEBRATING
56 YEARS

nerej

Synergy hires Tomadakis as senior asset manager

June 14, 2024 - Front Section

Rachel Tomadakis

Boston, MA Synergy, a real estate investor, operator, and manager, has hired Rachel Tomadakis as senior asset manager. With a career spanning over 15 years in commercial real estate asset management, Tomadakis brings invaluable expertise to Synergy's asset management team.

Tomadakis' background includes managing portfolios valued at $500 million or 4 million s/f, where she has demonstrated an ability to drive revenue and manage assets efficiently. She has executed over 700 leasing transactions, generating $210 million in annual revenue, and led dispositions totaling over $200 million. Tomadakis has also spearheaded internal control and asset management departments.

, exhibiting strong leadership and strategic prowess in underwriting investments and businesses nationwide.

Prior to Synergy, she was vice president of asset management at Marcus Partners. Tomadakis also served as director and asset manager for The RMR Group and vice president of asset management at KS Partners. In her previous roles, she has overseen third-party leasing and marketing teams across the country and managed budgets of $25 million in capital projects. Tomadakis is a member of both NAIOP and CREW.

"Rachel's wealth of experience and strategic acumen make her an invaluable addition to our team," said Brian Collins, executive vice president, head of asset management for Synergy. "Her track record of success aligns seamlessly with Synergy's goals, and we are excited to leverage her expertise to drive continued growth in our portfolio."

"I am honored to be part of Synergy's high caliber team," said Tomadakis. "I am committed to optimizing our portfolio's performance, identifying opportunities for growth, and navigating industry challenges with resilience. I look forward to elevating the team and contributing to Synergy's ongoing success in this dynamic real estate environment."