MountainOne Bank promotes Lauro to senior vice president, Western MA commercial leader

August 16, 2024 - Front Section

Matthew Lauro

Longmeadow, MA MountainOne has promoted Matthew Lauro to senior vice president, Western Massachusetts commercial team leader.

In this elevated role, Lauro has assumed responsibility for the oversight, management, and growth of MountainOne's commercial banking activities in Western Mass. In addition to having the Western Mass. commercial lenders reporting to him, Lauro is responsible for working closely with the bank's credit administration and commercial portfolio management staff to ensure the integrity and quality of the loan portfolio.

Lauro joined MountainOne in May 2022 as senior vice president of commercial lending. Previously, he served as vice president of emerging markets at State Street Bank and Trust.

"Over the past two years, Matt has been instrumental in developing new commercial loan and deposit relationships in the Berkshires and Pioneer Valley for MountainOne," said Robert Fraser, president and CEO. "Furthermore, his impressive skills and ability to build strong partnerships with our credit and loan administration teams, senior management, and key stakeholders have been invaluable. Matt's commitment to our customers and the growth of our portfolio makes him the definitive leader for our Western Mass. commercial team."

A graduate of Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute, Lauro resides in Pittsfield, and is involved in his community, serving as a director of the Pittsfield Affordable Housing Trust and Berkshire Education and Correction. Additionally, Lauro is a national council member of Avon Old Farms School and an active supporter of Grit & Gratitude Wrestling Academy.
