Margulies Perruzzi hires Marcey as healthcare studio leader

August 23, 2024 - Construction Design & Engineering

Edward Marcey

Boston, MA Margulies Perruzzi (MP) has hired Edward Marcey, AIA, as healthcare studio leader. Marcey will provide staff leadership as well as project management and quality assurance for the healthcare studio. He will also be responsible for maintaining and establishing new relationships with clients and industry partners.

“Marcey brings a well-rounded experience to the healthcare studio team,” said Daniel Perruzzi, AIA, LEED AP, principal and senior partner at Margulies Perruzzi. “He is dedicated to client management and staff development, aligning with the values of Margulies Perruzzi. His thoughtful leadership will ensure the success of current and future projects.”

Marcey has over 20 years of experience in the healthcare design industry. He has held roles ranging from senior project manager to director of operations to managing principal. Marcey has worked with numerous healthcare clients throughout the New England area, including Steward Health Care, Tufts Medical Center, Connecticut Children’s Medical Center, and Southcoast Health. His project experience includes new construction and renovations for various project types, such as emergency departments, surgical suites, ambulatory surgery centers, behavioral health, medical offices, pharmacies, clinical labs, linear accelerator suites, exam rooms, pediatric care, and dental services.

Marcey studied architecture at New Jersey Institute of Technology. He is a licensed architect in Arizona, Maine, Maryland, New Hampshire, New York, and Virginia.

Marcey currently serves in the officer line for the Philanthropic Masonic Lodge and is the 9th District Ambassador for the Grand Lodge of Masons in Massachusetts. He has participated in several fundraising events for the American Diabetes Association and the National Multiple Sclerosis Society. He was recently appointed to the Zoning Board of Appeals in his hometown of Lynn, Mass.

With an inspirational healthcare portfolio, Margulies Perruzzi specializes in hospital renovations and additions, outpatient clinics and treatment centers as well as hospital master planning, healthcare programming, and feasibility studies. Margulies Perruzzi has worked with a wide range of industry leaders, including Lahey Hospital & Medical Center, Beth Israel Lahey Health’s Winchester Hospital, MaineHealth, and many others.
