Union Savings Bank Foundation awards $300,000 to 31 local organizations

August 23, 2024 - Connecticut

Danbury, CT The Union Savings Bank (USB) Foundation recently awarded $300,000 in funding to 31 local organizations in Connecticut as part of the 158-year-old community bank's ongoing effort to give back to those it serves.

The 2024 grant recipients provide wide-ranging services to the community, including: educational and literacy programs; youth enrichment and developmental activities; cultivating the arts; health and wellness; mentorship and life skills readiness; domestic violence prevention, and more.

"We are honored to provide support to these organizations who are positively impacting the communities we serve throughout Western Connecticut and beyond," said Union Savings Bank president and CEO, Chelen Reyes. "They provide incredible value to their respective communities and offer vital services that help enrich, educate and support both children and adults, in countless ways — ultimately improving their quality of life. Union Savings Bank and the USB Foundation are proud to be able to help them continue their work."
