What is your vision for the future of women in commercial real estate? My vision for the future of women in commercial real estate is to look around at a conference of a few hundred people and find that I'm not just one of a few dozen women in the room.

What advice do you have for young women aspiring to enter commercial real estate? There is room for all types of personalities in commercial real estate. I was intimidated by some of the strong and boisterous personalities I saw when first getting into the field, thinking my temperament didn't align with what it took to be successful in commercial real estate. What I found was that there is a time, place and client for all types of personalities and approaches. Find your niche and be true to yourself and success will follow.
