Wayne J. Griffin Electric, Inc. hosts vendor appreciation golf event at the Hopkinton Country Club

November 15, 2024 - Front Section

Holliston, MA Wayne J. Griffin Electric, Inc. (Griffin Electric) held a vendor appreciation golf event at the Hopkinton Country Club. Griffin Electric was pleased to be able to recognize some of the many long-term partners that have worked with the company throughout the years by hosting this event, which included a luncheon and a fun day of golf and comradery.

Recently ranked the #1 Top Specialty Contractor in New England by Engineering News-Record (ENR) for the fourth straight year, Griffin Electric understands that achieving success and longevity would not be possible without the business relationships it has built and maintained for nearly five decades. The company has been fortunate to leverage these trusted relationships with vendors and suppliers across the construction industry and maintain a competitive edge.

Griffin Electric remains grateful to have so many dependable people in its corner and was proud to be able to celebrate collaboration and partnership through a day of fun as a small token of its appreciation.

Many of these vendor relationships are long standing and Griffin Electric recognizes the amount of hard work behind the scenes that has had a direct hand in the thousands of successful projects that the company has built over the years.
