Atlantic Property Management to manage The Sigmund Cos.' 172,000 s/f retail property

November 22, 2024 - Connecticut

Groton, CT The Sigmund Companies has selected Atlantic Property Management to manage a 172,000 s/f retail property on Poquonnock Rd. Known for its expertise in commercial property management across the Northeast, Atlantic will bring its full suite of management services to this assignment, positioning the grocer-anchored property for long-term success.

From day-to-day property management to financial oversight, Atlantic will focus on tenant satisfaction, operational efficiency, and property value enhancement. In addition to property management, leasing services will be exclusively handled by Atlantic Retail.

“We are excited to partner with The Sigmund Companies in managing this prominent property in Groton,” said Chad Boulay, COO at Atlantic Property Management. “Our team is committed to elevating the tenant and customer experience while driving property value for our client. This collaboration marks a new chapter of growth and opportunity for Atlantic Property Management and our full-service platform.”

This new assignment further underscores Atlantic’s position as a leading property management and retail leasing provider, delivering best-in-class services for clients and enhancing the communities they serve.
