Pearce Real Estate donates 20 Thanksgiving baskets to local families

November 29, 2024 - Front Section

North Haven, CT Pearce Real Estate has once again shown its commitment to the community by creating and donating 20 Thanksgiving baskets to local families and organizations. These baskets, beautifully prepared in foil roasting pans, contain holiday essentials along with a grocery gift card to help families purchase a turkey.

This year's recipients include Clinton Social Services, Community Dining Room in Branford, Women & Family Life Center in Guilford, Boys and Girls Club of Milford, North Haven Community Services, Youth Continuum in New Haven, Community Action Agency of New Haven, and United Way of Meriden and Wallingford.

Nanette Pastore expressed appreciation for the Pearce staff who contributed to the initiative, stating, "Our Thanksgiving baskets make a real difference for families, allowing them to focus on enjoying the holiday. Giving back is central to our values, and this tradition is one we hold dear."

Through this thoughtful annual contribution, Pearce Real Estate aims to bring comfort and support to families in need, furthering their mission to uplift the communities they serve.

The Thanksgiving baskets aim to alleviate the holiday burden for those facing challenges. Pearce Real Estate's commitment to social responsibility shines through in this annual tradition, demonstrating a dedication to making a positive impact in the communities they serve.
