Three skills that you use every day in your position:

Problem-solving, patience and active listening, and client relationship building.

Best book, podcast, or app for aspiring leaders: Leaders Eat Last by Simon Sinek.

Best advice for new leaders in 10 words or less:

Listen first, act thoughtfully, and always keep learning.

What recent project, transaction or accomplishment are you most proud of?

I am most proud when I see others rise, when a spark of promise becomes a steady flame of leadership. I have watched my coworkers, brimming with talent and purpose, step boldly into roles they were always meant to fill. I simply provide a stage, a bit of encouragement, and then I watch them soar. Their success humbles and drives me, reminding me of the power in lifting others to their full heights.
