Campbell of North Branch Construction joins Greater Concord Chamber of Commerce board of directors

December 06, 2024 - Northern New England

Joseph Campbell

Concord, NH Joseph Campbell, president of North Branch Construction, has been appointed to the board of directors of the Greater Concord Chamber of Commerce. Campbell's appointment marks a new chapter in his ongoing commitment to supporting and advancing the business community in the Greater Concord area.

As president of North Branch Construction, Campbell has led the company to become a trusted name in the construction industry, overseeing high-profile projects throughout New Hampshire. With a focus on quality, safety, and client satisfaction, North Branch Construction has earned a reputation for its expertise in commercial, industrial, and institutional construction.

Campbell's leadership has been integral to the company's success, and his appointment to the Chamber's board reflects his dedication to the growth and vitality of the local business community.

In addition to his role at North Branch Construction, Campbell has been an active volunteer and supporter of several local and construction industry organizations and initiatives. He is deeply committed to fostering an environment where businesses can enjoy success and communities can thrive. His involvement with the Chamber will allow him to collaborate with other local leaders and continue to promote a dynamic business environment in Concord and beyond.

"I'm honored to join the board of directors of the Greater Concord Chamber of Commerce," said Campbell. "North Branch Construction has always prioritized giving back to the community, and I look forward to working alongside fellow board members to help strengthen the region's economy and create opportunities for local businesses to grow and prosper."
