Atlantic Property Management continues its growth into Nashua, NH

January 10, 2025 - Front Section

Nashua, NH Atlantic Property Management is proud to announce its latest assignment: a 133,000 s/f, grocer-anchored retail center.

Known for delivering tailored management solutions to commercial assets across New England and the East Coast, Atlantic Property Management will provide its full platform of services for this well-situated retail center. The firm's comprehensive approach includes property maintenance, tenant services, and strategic planning to reduce operating expenses, increase tenant satisfaction, and ensure that the center remains a top choice for Nashua residents and visitors.

Supporting Atlantic Property Management's efforts, Atlantic Retail has been entrusted with all leasing services for the property.

“We are thrilled to take on this new assignment in Nashua and bring our hands-on, client-focused management approach to the property. With Atlantic managing the leasing, we’re confident in our ability to elevate this property’s potential, both for the community and the retailers that call it home,” said Chad Boulay, national director of business development for Atlantic Property Management.

This new assignment reflects Atlantic Property Management’s continued growth and expertise in managing and enhancing grocer-anchored properties throughout the region. As a trusted partner in commercial real estate, the company remains committed to delivering value for property owners, tenants, and the communities they serve.
