Davis and McFadden join team of principals at QA+M Architecture

December 20, 2024 - Connecticut

Jason Davis

Julia McFadden

Farmington, CT Quisenberry Arcari Malik, LLC (QA+M Architecture) has added two new principals to share in the leadership of the firm. Jason Davis, AIA, LEED AP BD+C and Julia McFadden, AIA, ALEP, WELL AP will be joining principals David Quisenberry, AIA, Tom Arcari, AIA, Rusty Malik, AIA and Jim Bell, AIA.

Davis, AIA joined QA+M Architecture in 2017, bringing along a following of loyal clients. He has steadily and quietly grown this client roster, winning awards and accolades along the way. With over 25 years of experience, Davis' design savvy assists industrial, commercial, and corporate clients improve layouts to maximize efficiencies in their workspaces. He specializes in working with contractors, construction managers, and developers on design-build and joint venture projects with an interest in Integrated Project Delivery (IPD) and an expedited timeline to completion.

McFadden, AIA joined QA+M Architecture in July 2024, already a seasoned principal with a reputation for perceptive and adaptable leadership of complex projects. Recruited by QA+M for her design sensibilities and charismatic marketing ingenuity, McFadden will continue to pursue and develop impactful and award-winning cultural and education projects. She promotes collaboration with her team to create unique and inspired designs reflecting the client's mission and aspirations through integrated art, graphics, and architectural detailing.

“We are incredibly fortunate to have Julia join our team. She will enhance our K-12 practice and elevate our transition into an eminent design firm,” said principal Rusty Malik.

“We couldn’t be more thrilled to welcome and elevate two professionals who have demonstrated the acumen and personality to attract clients for long-lasting relationships,” said QA+M founder and principal, Quisenberry.

Principal Tom Arcari said, “You know you have developed a strong and positive firm culture when employees have the freedom to develop their own market sector. It’s definitely a feather in our cap.”

Notable projects for Davis include: Puerto Vallarta Restaurant in Stamford, CT; Deringer-Ney and Burteck, LLC (manufacturing) in Bloomfield, CT; Bob’s Sports Chalet in Bristol, CT; Collinsville Bank in Farmington, CT; and Thomaston Savings Bank (multiple CT locations).

Notable projects for McFadden include: The Bergami Center for Science, Technology & Innovation for the University of New Haven, CT; The Little Theatre for ACES Educational Center for the Arts; the Lodge and Bunkhouses for Hole-in-the-Wall Gang; the rebuilding of the Sandy Hook School, Newtown, CT and dozens of other K12 schools in CT, MA, RI, ME, and MN.
