The National Association of Women in Construction VT chapter celebrates first annual installation holiday party

January 10, 2025 - Northern New England

South Burlington, VT The National Association of Women in Construction (NAWIC) Vermont chapter hosted its first annual installation holiday party at OnLogic, Community Dr.

Sixty members, friends, and supporters joined together to celebrate the season and welcome the newly installed board of directors officers for the upcoming year. The evening was filled with cheer and reflection of the achievements of the chapter's first official year.

One of the highlights of the evening was the installation ceremony, where the new officers were officially sworn in. The ceremony was a moment of pride and excitement, as the chapter looks forward to another year of growth and success under the leadership of the new board of directors.

As we move into the new year, the NAWIC Vermont chapter is excited to continue its mission of empowering women in the construction industry and making a positive impact in our community.

Congratulations to the 2024-2025 board of directors!
