Affordable Housing and Services Collaborative, Inc. names Angelo as project executive

February 07, 2025 - Owners Developers & Managers

Dana Angelo

Braintree, MA Affordable Housing and Services Collaborative, Inc. (AHSC), has named Dana Angelo as project executive.

In this role, he oversees various aspects of development projects, with key duties including construction, management, business development, client relationships, contract negotiations, team management, financial management, and strategic planning. He also acts as a liaison between the project team and high-level company leadership.

Angelo joins AHSC with 27 years of project management experience in the development industry, most recently as vice president, development with WinnCompanies. While at WinnCompanies, he oversaw the development and completion of several large-scale projects.

including a 74-unit mixed-income residence in Springfield, Massachusetts, a 95-unit mixed-income, adaptive reuse project in Ludlow, Massachusetts, and a 56-unit mixed-income residence in Braintree, Massachusetts.

Angelo's previous experience includes an 18-year tenure as a director at EA Fish Development, LLC where he successfully completed developments ranging from urban infill developments and adaptive reuse projects to ground-up new construction developments.

A graduate of Hobart College in Geneva, New York, with a Bachelor of Arts degree in sociology, Angelo went on to obtain a Master of Science in sports marketing and a Master of Business Administration from Northeastern University.

"I'm excited to join AHSC and eager to contribute to the organization's growth," said Angelo. "I look forward to collaborating with this talented team and leveraging my skills to achieve shared goals."

"We are thrilled to welcome Dana to our team," said Michael Mattos, president/executive director of Affordable Housing and Services Collaborative, Inc. "His expertise and vision align perfectly with our mission to develop quality, affordable housing. We have every confidence that Dana's contributions will have a positive impact on our organization as we continue to grow."
