Kent joins Berkshire Hathaway HomeServices Commonwealth Real Estate as agent

February 14, 2025 - Rhode Island

Ania Kent

East Greenwich, RI Realtor Ania Kent has joined Berkshire Hathaway HomeServices Commonwealth Real Estate as an agent. Kent's addition underscores the brokerage's commitment to growing its business by recruiting agents with regional expertise and track records of providing outstanding real estate services.

With over 15 years of experience in the real estate industry, Kent brings a global perspective and a proven track record of success. Her understanding of diverse markets, ranging from the Ocean State's coastal charm to competitive local neighborhoods, ensures her clients receive the best possible guidance in their home-buying or selling journey. Licensed in both Rhode Island and Connecticut, Kent extends her services internationally through her role on the Global Council, which helps provide the resources needed to connect clients with real estate professionals worldwide.

Kent's accolades include being named Agent of the Year and Highest Producing Solo Agent in 2023. She has been nominated for Realtor of the Year in 2021, 2022, 2023, and 2024.

Her work has even been featured on HGTV, in the Boston Globe, and The Providence Journal, showcasing her commitment to blending innovation with personalized service.

"Ania's track record speaks for itself," said George Patsio, managing partner at Commonwealth Real Estate. "At Berkshire Hathaway HomeServices Commonwealth Real Estate, we believe in building lifelong partnerships through trust, experience, and meaningful relationships. Her recognition as Agent of the Year is exactly what we look for in our agents. These accomplishments reflect her unparalleled dedication to clients and her ability to achieve outstanding success."

Born in Poland, raised in China, and educated in the United States and Canada, Kent's life experience positions her as a true global citizen. Her passion for helping others find their perfect home is matched only by her strong family values and love for Rhode Island, which she proudly calls home. Whether helping clients navigate complex transactions or maximizing property value, Ania consistently delivers exceptional results
