Timberline Construction promotes Emord to partner

February 21, 2025 - Construction Design & Engineering

Jason Emord

Canton, MA Timberline Construction Corp. (Timberline) has promoted Jason Emord, vice president and project executive to partner. With almost 20 years of experience in the construction industry, Emord has consistently demonstrated a commitment to excellence and a dedication to delivering top-quality projects.

As project executive, Emord plays a critical role in overseeing all facets of each project he's involved with, earning the trust and respect of clients and colleagues alike.

“Jason embodies what Timberline stands for – hard work, leadership, dedication to clients, while always aiming to deliver exceptional results,” said Steven Kelly, CEO of Timberline. “As we plan for our future, we know Jason will be a driving force behind it.”

Steve Wassersug, president of Timberline, said, “We are excited to extend this promotion to Jason. Since joining our team almost four years ago, Jason has dedicated himself to making our team and company a better place. We look forward to our continued growth with the addition of Jason as a valued and trusted partner.”

An accomplished project management professional, Emord is known for his meticulous attention to detail, ensuring projects are completed on time and within budget. Throughout his career, Emord has built strong relationships with clients, owner's project managers, building owners, architects, subcontractors, and area building officials throughout New England and beyond. His ability to anticipate and address project challenges has been key to his success in delivering seamless execution and on-time completion. Projects that Emord has led have earned awards recognition from publications such as Engineering News-Record and New England Real Estate Journal.

Timberline Construction remains committed to fostering leadership and delivering exceptional results to clients. Jason's promotion to partner reflects the company's belief in his ability to drive Timberline's success and continue to strengthen its reputation as a trusted leader in the construction industry.
