Michaud Development Group wins two HOBI Awards for Granite Woods

February 21, 2025 - Connecticut

Middlebury, CT Michaud Development Group has been awarded two HOBI Awards by the Home Builders & Remodelers Association (HBRA) of Connecticut for its Granite Woods 55+ community. The new development earned “Best Detached 55+ Community” and “Best Detached 55+ Home” at the 31st Annual HOBI Awards ceremony, held at the Aqua Turf Club in Plantsville, Conn. The awards bring the firm's total to 16 HOBI Awards — building on its reputation as a leader in Connecticut's homebuilding industry.

Granite Woods features 24 ENERGY STAR certified homes with five distinct one- and two-story floor plans, designed to balance elegance, efficiency, and accessibility for active adults. With only six residences remaining, the new development has established itself as a premier 55+ community.

"These awards recognize our commitment to superior craftsmanship, design, and value for 55+ homeowners," said Marc Michaud, partner at Michaud Development Group.
