Robinson of NKF negotiates four leases for Kensington Investment Co.

November 25, 2008 - Front Section

According to Newmark Knight Frank (NKF), 867 Boylston St. in Back Bay has experienced recent leasing activity.

Tom Robinson of Newmark Knight Frank's Boston office has negotiated four full-floor leases totaling more than 17,000 s/f on behalf of the building's owner, Kensington Investment Company Inc.

New tenants that have each signed leases for 4,322 s/f at 867 Boylston St.:

*Life in Synergy, Boston's premiere health and fitness educators, opened a class studio space on the second floor;

*Charlesgate Realty Group, a residential real estate firm, leased the third floor;

*Cypress Group, an IT placement firm, leased the fifth floor;

*The Iacocca Foundation, an organization devoted to funding diabetes research, leased space on the sixth floor; and

*Olivio Premium Products, a food marketing company, also leased space on the sixth floor. â€

Cypress Group was represented by Adam Schneier of NKF and both The Iacocca Foundation and Olivio Premium Products were represented by CB Richard Ellis senior VP William Crean.
