Plans4Less partners with PreconSuite to offer on-click blueprint solution

March 07, 2025 - Front Section

Beacon Falls, CT Plans4Less, a construction technology enterprise providing a seamless blueprint ordering and delivery platform, formed a first-in-market blueprint partnership with PreconSuite, a leading end-to-end bidding Software-as-a-Service (SaaS) company focused on the preconstruction industry. Plans4Less is the leading ConTech company providing a dedicated blueprint order and delivery platform to GC's, subs, architects and engineers on a national scale.

PreconSuite (formerly known as PipelineSuite) allows general contractors, subcontractors, and suppliers to perform a range of bidding functions in a fraction of the time. Its PreconBid module allows subcontractors and suppliers to track all their bids in one place and find new project leads.

With the new partnership, PreconBid subscribers who prefer paper plans will now benefit from having a hard copy blueprint option (button) embedded in their dashboard.

Brian Burke CEO of Plans4Less, said "The Plans4Less platform is fast, easy to use, accurate, very secure and now seamlessly integrated into the PreconSuite subcontractor bidding software, PreconBid."

Rick Dill, CEO of PreconSuite, said "The new partnership will add value to our subscribers by providing quick and easy access to those that prefer printed plans."

Burke said, "We eliminate blueprint friction points in the construction process, enhancing work flows, enabling users to make & win more bids, and generate more revenue."
