Robbins of Colliers leases 7,500 s/f to Automotive Elegance

April 04, 2025 - Northern New England

Londonderry, NH Automotive Elegance has signed a long-term lease at 49 Wentworth Ave. The 7,500 s/f end unit, part of a fully occupied 20,000 s/f building, will serve as the company's first New Hampshire location.

Andrew Robbins of Colliers represented Automotive Elegance, while Aron Brown of NAI Norwood Group represented the landlord, BDRC Properties II, LLC.

Automotive Elegance, the nation's top XPEL paint protection dealer since 2017, specializes in high-end vehicle protection services, including paint protection film, ceramic coatings, and window tinting.

"At Automotive Elegance, our mission has always been to deliver the highest level of quality and craftsmanship in automotive protection," said Benjamin Couture, director of operations. "Expanding into New Hampshire allows us to serve a market that truly appreciates premium vehicle care while also taking advantage of the state's strong business environment and growing demand for high-end automotive services."
