Colliers presents its 2024 award winners in the New Hampshire and Maine offices

April 11, 2025 - Front Section

Doug Martin, vice president and principal in New Hampshire, received the 2024 Top Producer Award, recognizing his exceptional performance and leadership in the market.

Martin and Bob Rohrer, managing director and principal in New Hampshire, took home the Deal of the Year Award for their role in the $6.9 million sale of 299 Pepsi Rd. in Manchester, NH, a 51,000 s/f warehouse/manufacturing building.

The Acceleration Award was presented to Andy Ward, senior associate in the Portsmouth office, for his impressive year. Ward achieved a strong 2024 production level, further solidifying his expertise in the Seacoast commercial real estate market.

“These awards highlight the dedication, market expertise, and resilience of our team. Doug and Andy’s strong performances demonstrate the depth of talent we have at Colliers, and I’m proud of what our team has accomplished,” said Bob Rohrer, managing director | New Hampshire Colliers.

Additionally, Mike Cobb, managing director and principal in Maine, was honored with the Darlington DeStefano Inspiration Award. Given in tribute to two of Colliers’ late colleagues, this award recognizes an individual who has conducted themselves in an inspirational way over the past year. Cobb’s dedication, integrity, and unwavering leadership at Colliers, and in his community, embody the very spirit of this recognition.

The Colliers team continues to set the standard for excellence in commercial real estate across the region.
