Lasky joins Union Savings Bank as a VP, business banking officer

April 18, 2025 - Connecticut

Richard Lasky

Monroe, CT Union Savings Bank (USB) has welcomed Richard Lasky to the bank as a vice president, business banking officer. He will work out of the Monroe, Ridgefield and Norwalk offices.

In his new role, Lasky will be responsible for working with existing business customers to serve their lending and deposit needs, as well as new business development.

With more than 30 years of experience in the financial services industry, and having worked at both regional and national banks, Lasky brings a wealth of knowledge and expertise to USB. He has held positions of increasing responsibility across various banking sectors including retail, small business, and commercial banking. Most recently Lasky was a vice president, senior small business banker at Bank of America in Connecticut. Prior to that, he was a vice president, relationship manager at Webster Bank in Fairfield, CT.

“We are excited to have Rich join Union Savings Bank,” said Marlene Piche, EVP, consumer & business banking. “His extensive background, leadership qualities, and proven track record in sales and business development are all huge assets to the business banking team. We’ll rely on him to deepen relationships with existing customers, while expanding our customer base in Fairfield County.”

Lasky attended Sacred Heart University, Fairfield, CT, and is actively involved in the community and local chambers of commerce. He is also a member of the Bridgeport Regional Business Council. Lasky currently resides in Milford, CT.
