September 26, 2025 - Spotlights

Maddie Johnson
VP, Property Management & Portfolio Ops.

What drew you to commercial real estate, and what keeps you passionate? I was drawn to commercial real estate by the energy of an industry that shapes how cities evolve and businesses succeed. I'm passionate about the dynamic nature of the work and how no two days are the same. Whether it's property marketing, leasing, or operations, I love being part of a collaborative process that helps companies reach their goals and find the right space to thrive.

What advice would you give to a woman considering a career in commercial real estate? Commercial real estate is a people-first industry, so building a strong network early on is key. Join a group like CREW Boston, get involved in a committee, and take part in programming. The relationships you build with mentors, sponsors, and peers are invaluable. They'll support your growth, open doors, and become a meaningful part of your career journey.
