

CELEBRATING
63 YEARS

nerej

Rockland Trust expands with new training facility and call center

October 10, 2025 - Financial Digest

Brockton, MA Rockland Trust plans to expand its office space at 120 Liberty St. Since 2008, Rockland Trust has leased two floors in the three-story, 45,000 s/f office building. The first floor of the building was previously occupied by the IRS which relocated to 103 Commercial St. in December of 2024.

Rockland Trust plans to develop the newly available first-floor space at 120 Liberty St. into a modern training facility and call center, supporting its ongoing commitment to colleague development and exceptional customer service. Construction is underway with completion targeted for December 2025.

“This expansion reflects our belief that developing our colleagues is essential to sustaining the culture that makes Rockland Trust truly special. By investing in dedicated spaces for training and collaboration, we are creating meaningful opportunities to nurture talent, strengthen relationships, and ensure our values continue to guide how we work,” said Jeffrey Tengel, president and chief executive officer of Rockland Trust. “Brockton has played an important role in our story for many years, and we’re excited to deepen our presence within this vibrant community.”

Mayor Robert Sullivan of Brockton added, “Rockland Trust’s continued investment in Brockton is a powerful vote of confidence in our city's future. Their expansion will create new opportunities and demonstrates the strength of our partnership in supporting economic growth and workforce development."

In May of 2025, Rockland Trust announced the lease of 140,000 square feet of office space at One Technology Place in Rockland. The new headquarters will combine teams from five existing office locations across Hanover, Plymouth, Norwood, and Rockland into a single, centralized location.

New England Real Estate Journal - 17 Accord Park Drive #207, Norwell MA 02061 - (781) 878-4540