Essex Savings Bank donates to local organizations

January 22, 2009 - Front Section

Gregory Shook, president and CEO of Essex Savings Bank said, "We are extremely proud to report available contributions of nearly a quarter of a million dollars from our Community Investment Program." The program provides financial support to over 200 non-profit organizations who offer outstanding services to the needs of area communities.

The bank annually commits 10% of its after tax net income to qualifying organizations within the immediate market area consisting of Chester, Deep River, Essex, Lyme, Old Lyme, Old Saybrook and Westbrook. By year end, a total of $2.668 million will have been distributed since inception in 1996. Essex Savings Bank customers determine 30% of the fund allocations each year by voting directly for three of their favorite causes, charities or organizations who have submitted applications to participate.

Ballots will be available at all Essex Savings Bank offices between February 2nd and March 16th to determine an allocation of $74,700. The bank's directors, senior officers and branch managers distribute the remaining $174,300.

Organizations (74) qualifying to appear on the 2009 ballot includes:
